Horace Mann: On the Right of Congress to Legislate for the Territories of the United States, and Its Duty to Exclude Slavery Therefrom, Delivered in the House of Representatives, in Committee of the Whole, June 30, 1848 Mr. Chairman: - I have listened with interest, both yesterday and to-day, to speeches on what is called the Presidential question. I propose to discuss a question of far greater magnitude - the question of the age - one, whose consequences will not end with the ensuing four years, but will reach forward to the setting of the sun of time. Sir, our position is this: The United States finds itself the-owner of a vast region of country at the West, now almost vacant of inhabitants. Parts of this region are salubrious and fertile. We have reason to suppose that, in addition to the treasures of wealth which industry may gather from its surface, there are mineral treasures beneath it - riches garnered up of old in subterranean chambers, and only awaiting the application of...
