Doubleday, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Mason LaVerie was raised in a remote Montana town in the church of the Aboriginal Fulfilled Apostles, a New Age-ish, like Amish, almost Christian matriarchal that keeps it distance from the corruption of mainstream life. But when the church starts going low on membership Mason and another young man are sent on a missionary assignment to recruit parishioners, mainly brides. They proselytize across the country spreading their message at malls, ticketing the country with leaflets and bumper stickers. But when he meets a young internet porn star he is driven to the brink of missionary madness. Walter Kirn is the author of 'Thumbsucker', he is also contributing editor to Time and GQ.
