Give your name and state your official connection. Mr. Lyman. Charles A. Lyman. For over two years I have been secretary of the National Board of Farm Organization, located at 1731 I Street NW. The organization was formed in the summer of 1917 by a number of farmers self-help organizations. These organizations have been in existence for a good many years. In the spring of 1917, about the time that Mr. Hoover came to this country to take charge of what became known as the National Food Administration, a great many people came to Washington. It was to meet this situation that farm leaders came to the National Capital and they met in the various conferences before the war emergency boards, and out of the various meetings they decided it was advisable and necessary to form a national union, a clearing house, for their organizations so that they might have representation. The board was called the Federal Board of Farm Organizations for the first year or so, and later the name was changed to National Board of Farm Organizations. The board has been in existence now for nearly four years and has put out a great deal of printed and mimeographed material to its general mailing list, so that it is not very hard to know what the board has been doing and what its purposes are. I have here a copy of what was called The farmers-win-the-war program, being the official compilation of the membership, program, and resolutions of the convention held under...
