VISIONS IN MAHABHARATA AND BIBLE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Religious tolerance is a must today. Majority of the problems in our society is caused by religious fanaticism. One of the reasons for religious fanaticism is ignorance. Since we do not know about other religion fully, we often show our animosity in holding the claims to the truth of one religion as superior to other religion. Therefore religious fanaticism starts from supremacism. Every religion is culture-specific and it only reflects the geographical, political and cultural worldview of a particular time and people; even the applicability of the original doctrines and, the customs and rituals associated with every religion is questionable in the modern times. If that is the case, why do people fight in the name of religion? The famous Indian tale The Blind men and an Elephant goes like this: A king called few blind men to the palace, and asked them to describe an elephant. When each blind men felt a part of the elephant, they started to describe the animal: the elephant is like a pot claims a blind man who felt the elephants head; it is like a winnowing basket, asserted another who touched the ear; oh, no, it is like a ploughshare argued another blind man who happen to touch the tusk, a pillar declared another etc. etc. The blind men cannot reach an agreement and started to fight among themselves. The book narrates visions in two major scriptures. Mahabharata and Bible - the sacred books of two different religions belong to the very constitutive structure of the society in which these religions originated. For Mahabharata, human being's initiative takes them to the supreme reality. However, for the Semitic...
