Eight Miles North: The Smilin Johnnie Story (Paperback)

By Farringtonmedia

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Smilin Johnnie is not your average country singer. He was never mesmerized by Nashville. New country sounds of Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson and Shania Twain never turned him on. Consequently, big bucks never flowed into his bankbook. However, he's made a living from country music all his life. He's over 80 and has been on the road for more than 60 years. And he's still traveling, having covered more than seven million miles back and forth across Canada from his Saskatchewan home Eight Miles North and One Mile East of Wroxtan. He's played most Indian reserves and many Inuit communities all over Canada, often traveling to remote places in the far north without any money for food, let alone the chartered aircraft he has to use. He pays for the aircraft on the way back when he's been paid for his shows. He and his wife, Eleanor Dahl, his singing partner and business partner, often leave home with only a few bookings and add shows along the way to pay for the trip....
