It shall be the duty of the principal and assistants in each county high school to follow faithfully the course of study prescribed by the Superintendent of Education, in accordance with section 1866 of the Code. This course of study shall be a four year course and shall be based on an elementary course of seven grades or years. 7. If the county board of education deems it expedient to allow the seventh grade to be taught in the county high school building as a preparatory grade to the regular high school course, as outlined by the High School Commission, such may be done, provided all teachers of this grade are elected and their salaries fixed in the same manner as the county high school teachers, and the necessary funds required to maintain this grade, in the way of salaries, incidentals, etc., are provided for by the county board of education and other local authorities; and provided further, the teachers and pupils of this grade shall be under the direct supervision of the principal and governed in accordance with the rules and regulations made by the High School Commission. 8. The county high school shall begin its annual session at such date as may be fixed by the county board of education. 9. The session of the county high schools shall be nine scholastic months (thirty-six weeks). The session is divided into two terms of four and one-half months each, and at the end of each term a general...
