

Breastless Intimacy: A Celebration of Love, Loss and Learning

By Cynthia Leeds Friedlander

Word Craft Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 200 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Breastless Intimacy is a memoir about the authors journey through a non life-threatening diagnosis of breast cancer shortly following the death of her sister from advanced metastatic breast disease. It is also about the authors experiences with men as a single woman who has had her breasts removed. She writes, This is a book from my heart. I have written it as a gift, as a celebration of love, loss and learning. Its a book for those who are making, or have made, decisions to alter their bodies and are dealing with intimacy after those alterations. I recognize that its less likely to be a book for those who are suffering or have suffered from advanced breast cancer and its many terrifying treatments. I watched my sister go through that end of the breast cancer spectrum and made choices to protect myself from those nightmares. Long before Angelina Jolie made her decision to have her breasts removed, I made difficult choices that were right for me and I have decided to share my experiences with others. Recognizing how easy it is for me to express...
