O. , 2008. LC Number: KF27 . H57 2008 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)233180523 Excerpt: . . . 11 tiatives. These briefings focused on execution of policies in the field. In May, the Department will host another 3-day event for senior career employees from all of the components at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Geor-gia. This training will engage senior career employees in a series of briefing sce-narios and FEMA exercises to reinforce integrated operational preparedness and execution throughout the Department. Additionally, beginning this summer and continuing through inauguration, we will be holding more incident response table top exercises that will ensure senior career and incoming appointees have the ability to put into practice the guidance of the National Response Frame-work, the National Infrastructure Protection Plan and National Incident Man-agement System. 5. Administrative Transition Guidance. - The Senior and Deputy Transition Of-ficers that have been identified are working closely with the USMs core transi-tion team to evaluate internal processes and develop briefing materials. It is particularly important to evaluate our internal processes to ensure effectiveness during the anticipated surge of incoming and exiting staff. The internal proc-esses initiative will involve reviewing Directives, strengthening records manage-ment and ensuring for incoming staff, that both new appointees and career em-ployees are equipped with the tools they need and the information and relation-ships required to be effective in their jobs. We will also be developing briefing materials to convey to career executives and incoming appointees the requisite information and knowledge to maintain operations. For exiting staff we will en-sure proper briefings. 6. Processes. - In addition to focusing on...
